5TH SPIRITUALITY INTEGRATION IN BEHAVIORAL HEALTH CONFERENCE:

“Journey to Wholeness: A Lifespan Perspective”

Wednesday, January 16, 2019

8 a.m. – 4:30 p.m.

Delhi Center: 505 East Central Avenue, Santa Ana, 92707

This year's spirituality conference will focus on the developmental/lifespan perspective when integrating spirituality with behavioral health care. Topics will include the relevance of a lifespan perspective for behavioral health and developing a working definition of spirituality. The importance of spirituality-driven language as it pertains to the Recovery Model will be introduced as well as integrating a developmental awareness of childhood spiritual experiences. Breakout sessions will address various developmental stages and highlight the role of spirituality across the lifespan.

Morning Keynote:

Relevance of a Spirit-Informed Awareness for a Culturally Diverse World: Implications for Behavioral Health Practice

Dr. Joseph Cervantes, Ph.D., ABPP
 Professor

Department of Counseling
 School of Health and Human Development
 California State University, Fullerton

Afternoon Keynote:

NAMI FaithNet Caregiver Panel

This panel will address how spirituality and faith may impact a person living with mental illness, from the perspectives of a peer, caregiver, clergy and clinician.
